Love Poem Three Autumns Later

In East Oakland, in my temporary flat,
I wash your empty plant pot
at the kitchen sink.
In the dirt, loosened from the crevices,
tiny flecks of sand—the same slant of auburn as the pot—
I gather and carry them to the lake.
The water is still. The sky drifts to the left where memory lives.
Forty years a swamp, I say, opening my palm.
